Use of donations

In all instances we strive to use funds towards the cause you have selected but in the event of a greater need or change in program needs GVN Foundation will determine the destination of funds.

Refund Policy

Payments processed through the GVN Foundation and through our fundraising website are not refundable. The nature of the foundation is such we cannot refund donations as we serve communities and organizations with some dependence on these donations. Refunding these donations would mean that the GVN Foundation would not be able to run efficiently, and would impact negatively upon the communities and organizations we serve.
